

Cobleigh Public Library Summer Learning Program

June 2023

Weekly Programs All Summer Long!

Storytime in the Park: Tuesdays & Wednesdays at 10:00am.

Stories, songs, crafts, games & other fun activities.

* Tuesdays are designed for ages 0-6 (but all are welcome!)

* Wednesdays — during summer break — are designed for ages 6-12 (but all are welcome!)

At Bandstand Park in good weather (or in the library in the event of rain).

Baby & Toddler Play Group: Fridays at 10:00am. Simple stories, songs, fingerplays & “baby bounces,” plus a snack ...and plenty of free play time! Co-sponsored by NEKCA Lyndonville Early Head Start.

At Bandstand Park in good weather (or in the library in the event of rain).

Special Events in June:

My Favorite Book: Saturday, June 10, 10:00am. Bring a favorite book from home to share, enjoy a snack and take home a free book to keep.

(Don't worry, you get to keep your favorite book too!)

Co-sponsored by NEKCA Lyndonville Early Head Start.

At Bandstand Park in good weather (or in the library in the event of rain).

Summer Learning Kickoff & Family Fun Friday: Friday, June 16, 4:00pm-6:00pm. Help us kick off a summer of reading, learning, community and fun! This event will feature lots of kid-friendly activities, and a performance by beloved Vermont singer-songwriter Jon Gailmor starting at 4:30pm.

Co-sponsored by All Things Lyndon.

At Bandstand Park in good weather (or gym at Lyndon Town Offices if rain).

Author Visit - Tanya Sousa: Thursday, June 22, 1:00pm. NEK based author Tanya Sousa will read from one of her beautiful picture books, talk about her experience as a writer, and lead us in some fun “imagination exercises.”

At Bandstand Park in good weather (or gym at Lyndon Town Offices if rain).

Raptors: Inspiring Conservation with VINS: Thursday, June 29, 1:00pm. This engaging presentation by the Vermont Institute of Natural Science features several live raptors, and tells the story of how people came together to save some of our most charismatic birds of prey.

At Bandstand Park in good weather (or gym at Lyndon Town Offices if rain).

Take the Summer Reading Challenge!

- Log your reading & complete your challenge to earn a free book from Green Mountain Books, courtesy of Passumpsic Bank, and a free small pizza from Lyndonville House of Pizza!
- All active participants will also be entered in weekly raffles for prizes from local businesses.
- TO GET STARTED: Sign up at vermont.beanstack.org, or download the free Beanstack app on a smartphone, or just stop by the library and we'll help you get signed up. The app is easy & fun -- but don't worry, we still have paper reading logs & stickers for those who prefer them!

The Buzz About Bees: July 13, 1:00pm. Learn about the busy, buzzy world of honey bees & beekeeping with Garrett Brinton (the new Youth Librarian at Cobleigh Library), who has been keeping bees for more than 15 years. We'll read a couple of great picture books about bees, sample some raw honey from Garrett's hives, check out live honey bees in a plexiglass Observation Hive, and enjoy a fun honey bee themed "giant board game."
At Bandstand Park in good weather (or gym at Lyndon Town Offices if rain).

Author Visit - Natalie Kinsey-Warnock: Thursday, July 20, 1:00pm
A lifelong Northeast Kingdom resident and author of 21 children's books -- mostly based on true stories from her family history -- Natalie aims to help the rest of us discover and preserve great stories from our own families.
At Bandstand Park in good weather (or gym at Lyndon Town Offices if rain).

Kamishibai Storytelling with Tara McGowan: Thursday, August 3, 1:00pm
Tara McGowan, author of "The Kamishibai Classroom" will demonstrate the fascinating art of traditional Japanese "paper theater" storytelling.
At Bandstand Park in good weather (or gym at Lyndon Town Offices if rain).

Cobleigh Literacy Fair: Friday, August 4, 11:00am. Come celebrate a great summer of learning with the fabulous puppetry of Modern Times Theater! After the show participants who have completed their Summer Reading Challenge will be awarded their gift certificate for a free book from Green Mountain books, and one that's good for a free small pizza from Lyndonville House of Pizza! (See other side for details on Summer Reading Challenge.)
